

The Death of a Family Member Presents A Lot of Things to Do

This list has been prepared as a reference to assist you to notify relevant departments and organisations that may need to be advised of the death of your loved one. We cannot guarantee that this list covers all entities, but it is a guide to making things a little easier.

- Accountant
- Ambulance
- Australian Taxation Office
- Bank / Credit Union
- Broker / Investment Agency
- Chemist
- Church / Minister
- City Council
- Centrelink
- Clubs and Organisations
- Community Health
- Dentist
- Doctor
- Drivers Licence / Department of Transport
- Electoral Office
- Electricity / Gas Supplier
- Employers
- Executor of Will
- Finance Companies
- Healthcare Professionals
- Hire Purchase Companies
- Home Care / Nursing Service
- Hospital / Nursing Home
- Landlord
- Libraries / Volunteer Organisations
- Life Insurance Companies
- Meals on Wheels
- Medicare
- Milk Vendor
- Newspaper Vendor
- Optometrist
- Passport / Visa
- Physiotherapist
- Post Office
- Private Health Cover
- Queensland Transport
- Solicitor / Trustee
- Superannuation Fund
- Telephone / Mobile Phone / Internet
- Union
- Veteran's Affairs
- Work Cover